Liability and Waiver Statements

I, _____ (please print name) hereby assume all of the risks of participating in and/or volunteering at this event. I further acknowledge and understand that participation in this low temperature outdoor activity carries with it inherent risks including, but not limited to, the risk of injury including death. It is the responsibility of each participant of this event to familiarize with the risks of swimming in cold water (4 – 9 degrees) and including but not limited to other weather conditions, to weigh those risks against the advantages, and to decide whether or not to participate. The organizers of this event, the representatives, leaders, volunteers, email senders and members cannot and will not assume liability in respect of any of these risks, dangers, hazards and liabilities. Participants further acknowledge that it is their responsibility to ensure that they carry adequate medical, extended health, dental and accident insurance coverage, as well as protection for personal possessions. It is the participant's individual responsibility to verify that they are in good health and are physically capable of carrying out the outdoor activities or waiting in winter weather conditions for the official start of the Polar Bear Swim. Therefore, in consideration of being allowed to participate, individuals release the organizers, its representatives, leaders, email senders, volunteers and members of this fundraising event from all liability in respect of any personal injury suffered, any damage or loss of personal property, which may arise out of participation in this fundraising outdoor activity.

Signature of registrant: _____ Date: _____

If participant is under 19 years old, parent/guardian written consent is required:

I, as parent/guardian of above minor, have agreed to the terms of the Liability and Waiver Statements set forth above.
